

Angela Hazebroek MPlA CPP

Director

2010

Angela thrives on working to help organisations develop and articulate a shared vision for their future. This is reflected in the diverse projects she undertakes including Strategic Management Plans for councils, regional tourism strategies and positive ageing strategies. A widely respected strategic planner, facilitator and mediator, she draws on over 20 years of experience in planning, as well as previous involvement in social work and early childhood education. Angela is focused on synthesising research and consultation to achieve pragmatic solutions that have ecological integrity and support social and economic justice. She is also passionate about planning in regional areas and consulting with the 'quiet' sectors of our community.
