

Julie Lewis MPIA CPP

Senior Associate

2010

Julie is a highly skilled strategic and statutory planner. Her extensive experience as a planning consultant is reinforced by her experience in local government in regional South Australia, where the planning issues are wide ranging and involved. Julie's strengths lie in her ability to facilitate complex development proposals by tailoring investigations, consultation and strategic analysis to each project. Her range of experience in both metropolitan and regional areas enhances her credibility as an expert witness in the ERD Court, while also informing her award winning work on Development Plan Amendments, strategic analysis/policy formulation and character studies. Special interests also include tourism development and built heritage.
