

Kieron Barnes

MPIA CPP

Senior Associate

2011

Kieron's dual qualifications in planning and environmental studies assist him to balance often competing project objectives in the public and private sectors. Kieron's thirteen years as a planning professional have provided him with a broad set of skills and experience ranging from the provision of expert evidence in the ERD Court to the preparation of award winning strategic planning documents. Kieron has particular strengths in the preparation of Development Plan Amendments and urban growth strategies for metropolitan and regional Councils. He also has a strong interest in the preparation of environmental management plans as well as recreation and sport strategies.
